EASTERN HIGH SCHOOL

Lansing, Michigan

The aim of the 1939 staff has been to portray every aspect of life at Eastern that can be illuminated by the LANTERN'S rays. With this in mind, we are now aboard the S.S. Eastern, embarking on a cruise into 1939. The crew, from the stern visaged pilot on the bridge to the carefree shipmates below decks, all are eagerly awaiting each interesting event. Both the commonplace and the unusual phases of life aboard ship are recorded pictorially in our blue and gold log, making a permanent record of the voyage, especially for those who are embarking on the S.S. Eastern for the last time.

Editor-in-Chief . . . Richard Bauerle
Business Manager . . Martha Gilmore

Advertising Manager . Kenneth Harlow

In Appreciation

In appreciation, MR. MANZ, for your invaluable services, we, the senior classes, dedicate to you the 1939 LANTERN. The various capacities in which you have served during your ten years at Eastern merit our recognition and thanks. As treasurer of Eastern you have handled the finances of our many organizations, which is in itself a great task. In addition, your activities as President of the Lansing Teachers' Club, as a capable commercial instructor, and as the adviser of the senior class for two years prove your worth to all of us. Your humor, personality, and genuine friendliness have served to help make our three year residence here an enjoyable one.

OFFICERS

Ahoy Ship's Bridge

Skillfully guiding the S.S. Eastern are three chief officers: Mr. Rich, our Principal, Miss Baumgardner, the Assistant Principal, and Mr. Chadwick, Dean of Boys.

The unerring judgment and acknowledged administrative abilities of Mr. Rich (lower left) qualify him to direct the course of our great ship.

Miss Baumgardner (upper left), known personally by nearly all the students, as the Girls' Adviser smooths out the many perplexities of school life for them.

Student Council

Our present Hall System, due to the splendid cooperation which exists between the chief duty guide, the hall sergeants (lower picture), and hall officers, has worked out very well this past year. This system has been successfully carried out by the STUDENT COUNCIL (upper picture), made up of able representatives from the various home rooms, and working in cooperation with the faculty. These representatives, acting as spokesmen for their groups, learn the pupils' desires and voice them for discussion at the regular meetings. The problems of five schools in Michigan, who got together and now call themselves the 5-A League, have been helped by our Eastern spokesmen.

Row 1: N. Richards, M. Gordon, M. Dean, M. Thomas. Row 2: B. Duffy, S. Stephens, J. Chaulker, M. Rasmussen.

English

Row 1: Jane Bull, Mildred Toogood, Bertha Pollitt. Row 2: Marie Sisson, Aleath Garrity, Mary Kelly, Effie Ericson, Louise Sprau, Margaret Winters, Nellie Grohe, Helen Benjamin, Pauline Scott.

No matter how far he travels, a well educated person is always distinguished by the ways he speaks his native tongue. Our American companions also know that people back home will be impressed by the neatly and correctly written letters which are sent to them from foreign ports.

Language

There are always some (very few) scholarly looking people on board, either reading of Aeneas' wanderings or patiently studying French verbs and pronunciations, while the more brilliant students hide smiles behind their hands at this queer language that is being spoken. Three of the students, apparently feeling they have mastered Latin as a language, have laid aside their books and turned to the curio case to learn something of Roman life and art.

Home Economics

Chefs, stewards, and stewardess received their culinary arts training in the food laboratories of the S.S. Eastern.

Why tramp home after the strenuous fourth hour, when you can go down on first deck and have a tasty bite in the cafeteria?

When traveling abroad, one wants a desirable selection of clothes which will best suit her personality. Suggestions for these, and many more wardrobes, are made in the clothing classes.

Jake Burnham, Russell Schneider, Don Wheeler, Herbert Fox, Maynard Morrison.

Mathematics

A person seldom sees our famous mathematicians just sitting quietly like this without a pupil or two leaning on their desks, wondering how on earth two different equations can be made to come out correctly. They will soon have to help some poor fellow at the board who is trying to make angles and triangles meet.

Science

Lois Manning, Herman Lange, Hyrtl Feeman, M. A. Logch.

Social Science

The group at the long table at the right make up the department from whom we learn not only of past events but something of what to expect in the future. The students behind the American Observers (below) seem to be reading the joke section, but in reality they are keeping themselves well informed about the latest news of the world.

Row 1: Wayne Edgerton, Maynard Morrison, Lora Knevels, Gracia Sexton, T. G. Harris, Russell Gilson. Row 2: John Brisbin, George Chadwick.

Physical Education

Walter Graff, Loma Calhoun, Winifred Kalchthaler, Roland Winston.

When passengers in the S.S. Eastern want to take a dip in the white tiled pool, play a fast game of shuffle board, or try their skill in that highly popular game of badminton, they can go to one of our gyms. Above, Miss Calhoun's modern dancing class is very popular and keeps its members in shape by daily putting them through their various exercises.

Music and Art

The pupils teetering on the suspended board are just beginning a wall mural depicting life at Eastern. This project has been carefully supervised by our art instructor, Miss Holland. Tacking up a picture which advertises summer cruises, she makes us all see the skill which her art students display.

Interesting assembly programs have developed from such little conferences as are going on between Mr. McIntire and Mr. Ferguson (below, left). Mr. McIntire's choir has thrilled Lansing's audiences, while the band has instilled much loyalty in our hearts by playing the national anthem at the beginning of each assembly program.

The Commercial

DEPARTMENT, above, is of interest to us because of its popularity with the students. Time passes quickly when our fingers can run over the typewriter keys and keep right on running over a page of an unreadable code that baffles the academic students but which is commonly called Shorthand.

Strange noises are forever issuing from that peculiar little machine shop which the students call the "dog house." We're assuming that the cars are taken apart in order to see what makes them tick and not just for the entertainment of the INDUSTRIAL DEPARTMENT, below.

THORE LEAVE

At Ease!

Seeing the World

Senors and senoritas of Eastern's SPANISH CLUB watch round-eyed as Miss Ericson shows them lands across the bounding main. They find the picturesque country of Spain, with its romantic traditions, its ancient customs, and its medieval grandeur most enchanting.

Row 1: E. J. Dailey, M. Johnson, M. Malone, M. Wilson, V. Simmons. Row 2: G. Sidoti, R. Yanz, R. Yanz, Miss E. Erickson, D. Griffin, H. Cavanaugh. Row 3: J. Fair, H. Landau, R. Myers, T. Nickel.

Row 1: H. Landau,

L. Goodell. Row 2:
J. Lewis, M. Kimball,
B. Hoppkan, P. Beckwith, B. Marion, G.
Wonnacott, Miss
Manning, D. Rhoades,
M. Anderson, R. Letherman, B. Crawford.

Anchors Aweigh!

Here's a group, the TRAVEL CLUB, pictured above, that seems never to lose their yearning for travel. They study methods of transportation, and then, at the end of the school year, they launch a journey.

Parlez-vous Français?

French inclined sailors find a ready welcome in the FRENCH CLUB, where the various holidays and customs are observed. They find the frivolity and lightness of "Gay Paree" very delightful.

Row 1: S. Clark, (V. President) V. Comstock, J. Pollard, B. Clemmer, P. Spring, A. Knight, J. Emede. Row 2: W. Potter, R. Johnson, E. Noftsger, (President) L. Bircham, H. Long, J. Baxter, B. Kenney, Mr. W. Sage. Row 3: S. Richmond, (Secretary and Treasurer) B. Barnes, B. Cooper, S. Larsen, M. L. Larsen, K. Batchelder.

Row 1: S. Palmer, (V. President) E. Perkins, D. Pruden. Row 2: M. Mayer, (News Reporter) M. L. Cooper, M. B. Hayes. Row 3: B. Hemingway, M. Brady, D. Hungerford, J. Fineout, (Secretary and Treasurer), C. Hanniman, H. Case, G. McKinsey, K. Albaugh, R. Bennett, Miss Winters, C. Gillison. Row 4: A. Quick, M. Quick, L. May, B. Southard, H. Jackson, D. Bennett, McQueary, Gadaleto (President)

The Play's the Thing!

Above, shipmates of theatrical ability dramatize a skit while the rest of the members of the DRAMA CLUB offer helpful bits of advice and criticism. Perhaps, in this very organization, are the stage and screen stars of tomorrow!

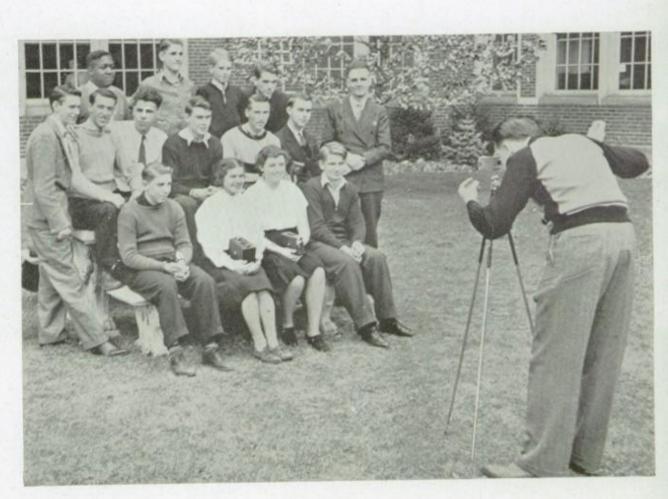

Row 1: L. Dombrowski, H. Hedges, D. Gates, D. Domina, G. Adsit. Row 2: Miss Wheeler, M. Erbe, R. Haynes.

Stamps, Stamps, and More Stamps!

At left, members of the STAMP CLUB find the collecting, discussing, and trading of stamps from the various ports of the globe a very interesting and profitable pastime.

Hold It!

An Eastern shipmate photographs his brother CAMERA CLUB members for a permanent record in the good ship's log. Candid shots are their specialty—and they waste no time in making the most of every inviting situation around the good ship's decks!

Paint Splashers!

Here are the S.S. Eastern's artistically inclined sailors, members of the BRUSH AND PALETTE CLUB. They find outlets for their dreams and emotions in the pictures they paint. To their ability in beautifying surroundings do we owe much of the attractiveness of our ship.

Row 1: R. Tefft. Row 2: B. Cross, E. Cary, E. Bebee, I. Fisher, D. Ely, B. Lowe, R. Cummings, Miss Holland. Row 3: F. Field, D. Gates, J. Reilley, B. McIntosh, J. Conarroe, J. Porter, B. Dexter, D. Field.

Solving Some of the Mysteries of Life

To these chemically minded members, at left, of Eastern's CHEMISTRY CLUB, who search deep into the atomic and molecular realms, water no longer is just the bounding surge, but reveals itself before their eyes as a compound, H<sub>2</sub>O.

Flash! The Easterner Goes to Press!

The capable work of the journalism class makes possible the editing of the Easterner, the successful bimonthly record of the ship's activities. Above, newshounds bring their scoops and, at right, the news is written up. All advertising is solicited by the members of the business staff, below.

Book Worms

The circulation throughout the ship of many logs records, and other volumes could not be accomplished so easily without the able guidance of the LIBRARY STAFF, above.

Mightier Than the Sword

At left, our sailors of higher writing ability compose the Quaker Chapter of QUILL AND SCROLL and National Honorary Journalists' Organization for high school students.

Forensics

Eastern is recognized as an important member of the Michigan High School Forensics Association. Debating is extremely popular, and, when we sailed last fall, twenty-five turned out to answer the call for debaters. Out of forty-two debates, our team was victorious in thirty-four.

In the spring of 1938, Grace Sidoti, right, fought her way to the district title for oratory in an attack which brought us second places in extempore and declamatory speaking. Grace entered the state-wide oratory contest held at Michigan State College in April of this year, and placed second in a field of eleven contestants.

In the ship's forensic contests, Tom Kirkconnell took first in declamatory speaking, Don Nichols in oratory, and Grace Sidoti won in extempore speaking.

This year the department entered a new activity—radio broadcasting. Debates have been broadcast over station WJR, of Detroit, station WJIM, of Lansing, and were broadcast weekly from station WKAR, East Lansing. Dramatic programs and variety shows were also presented from time to time.

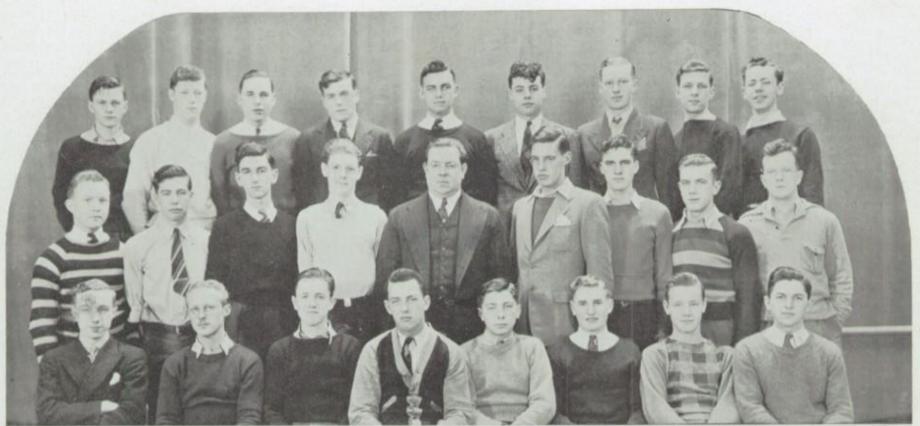

When the ship is privileged to present a program of any kind, it is to these members of the AUDITORIUM CLUB (upper picture) that we owe our ease in finding reserved seats in the spacious auditorium.

"Tra la, tra la," sing our vocally talented shipmates. Above, the blended voices of Eastern's BOYS' GLEE CLUB roll out in deep billowy tones like the thundering surf beating a rugged coast. The GIRLS' GLEE CLUB, below, swings out in sweet harmony to the rocking rhythm of the sea.

Doing the sailor's horn-pipe doesn't satisfy these jitterbugs of the TAP DANCING CLUB. They find nothing quite so invigorating as a song and dance to break up the monotony of routine work.

GIRLS!

The GIRLS' LEAGUE, an organization composed of the entire feminine crew of the S.S. Eastern, conducts programs worked out by the various class units. These are interesting and decidedly beneficial to the members. Above, the installation of new officers by candle-light, a semi-annual occasion.

By open forum or discussion, members of the GIRLS' DISCUSSION CLUB (below) strive to work out various personal and group problems. These discussions prove to be both beneficial and encouraging.

He-Men!

These rough-and-ready boys (above) find genuine excitement and thrills galore in their numerous adventures in the out-of-doors. Their love of hunting and fishing earns for them the name of FUR, FEATHER, AND FIN CLUB.

This HI-Y group (below), the local chapter of an organization found in almost every nation, is banded together to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character.

It Takes Co-operation!

Sailors with a yen for knots get their desire fulfilled in the BOYS' and GIRLS' TUMBLING CLUBS. Making human knots of themselves is a specialty to these double-jointed swabs. You can find them in the ship's gyms, practicing pyramid building, horizontal bar work, and other gymnastic feats. During the year the clubs performed for various social functions. Theirs is an art depending upon an undivided attention to and a skilled co-operation in their work.

These pugnacious brutes (upper picture), the nuskies of the ship, meet weekly for a slug fest. They are the hard-swinging, clean-fighting members of the cauliflower fraternity, the BOXING CLUB.

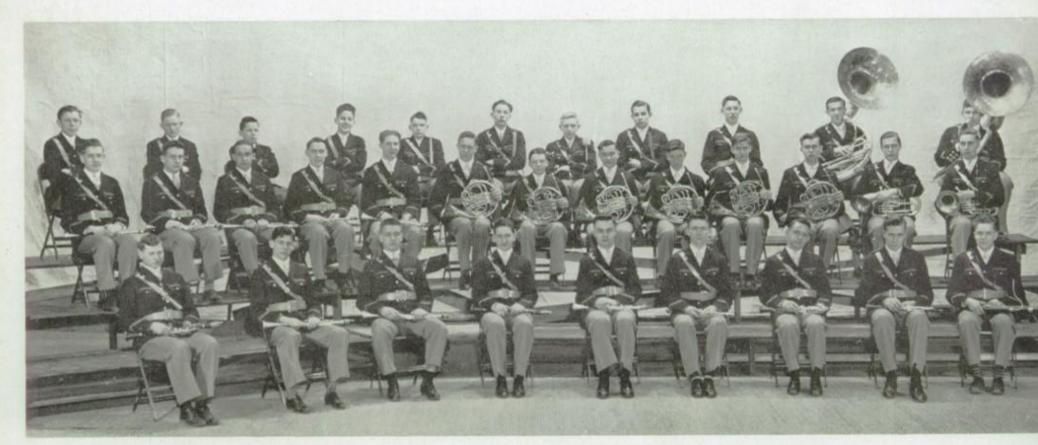

A game always popular on ship-board is badminton. This is particularly true on the S.S. Eastern which boasts a BADMINTON CLUB (lower picture), open to all who are interested in the game and organized to provide a time and place for mixed couples to play.

Row 1: S. Goucher, H. Ryan, M. McQueary, J. Stuart, C. Gillison, V. Tefft, S. Dunbar, J. Rose, M. Purchis. Row 2: M. Dean, E. Pruim, D. Cleeves, D. Locke, B. Cooper, M. O'Meara, S. Richmond, M. Those military-uniformed high-stepping members of the ship's BAND passed a very successful year. Besides the annual concert, given on March 30, the members played at various football and basketball games. The boys double-teamed with Central's band to play at the State Capitol on Americanism Day.

Football Opens Athletic Year

With a record of seven victories against one defeat, the 1938 Quaker football team was one of the most successful in our history. The team worked industriously, as is shown below in the skull session picture, and their efforts were well rewarded.

At the top of the page is shown the "controlling head of our sports program," the ATHLETIC BOARD OF CONTROL. Standing: D. Kaulitz, Mr. Graff, Mr. Manz, W. Ball. Seated: Mr. Wheeler, Mr. Rich, R. Yanz.

Showing great promise, the Eastern eleven opened their schedule with an easy 83-0 win over Rochester. Taking on a strong River Rouge team next, the Quakers fought through to a well earned 20-6 victory. Opening the Five-A League season at Jackson, the gridders were given a scare but continued on their winning ways by the margin of 13-6.

The next week Battle Creek traveled here and ran into a touch-down parade, losing by a score of 30-0. Playing Port Huron on their own field, the Quaker machine kept their victory string intact with a 26-7 win. Back at Pattengill Field the Graffmen turned in their third Five-A League victory with a 33-0 win over Ann Arbor. To keep their season record clean for the annual city battle, the team turned in a hard fought 13-6 victory over Grand Haven.

Meeting the also undefeated Lansing Central for the Five-A and State Championships before an estimated crowd of 7,500, the Quakers displayed a fine brand of football but were defeated 7-0.

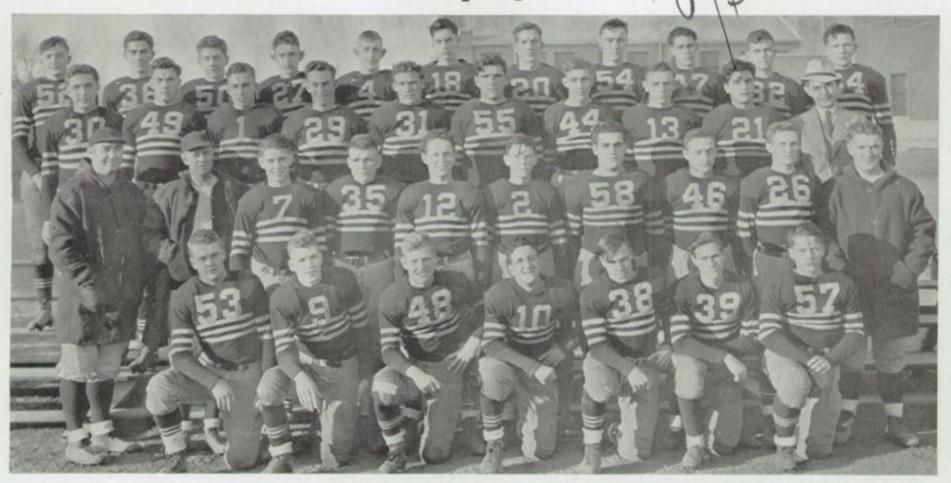

Much credit is due the coaching staff composed of Mr. Graff, Mr. Burnham, and Mr. Morrison for the large part they played in the success of the team. Mr. Morrison, former All-American center at the University of Michigan, is new to the staff this year.

Grid Glimpses

Under the able coaching of Mr. Winston, the Cross Country team had one of its most successful seasons. The team was led by Don Merritt, veteran star, and was well balanced throughout. The team turned in victories over Ann Arbor, St. Mary's, and Battle Creek. In the city meet, the Quakers defeated Lansing Central, 39-19. Their only defeat was at the hands of Jackson.

At the 5-A League meet the Eastern runners found conditions to their liking and came out in first place. Meeting some stiff competition in the State meet, the Quakers ended in eighth place. In Coach Winston's own words, "This year's team was probably the best in Eastern's history."

CHEER LEADERS

Cheer Leading

At football and basketball games the exuberant spirit of the Eastern supporters is very noticeable. A large share of the credit for this fine support is due the cheer leaders for their excellent leadership. Under the fine tutelage of Mr. Leyrer the cheer leaders have progressed rapidly within the past few years. The members of the squad are pictured at the left.

Coach Winston's 1938-39 Quaker Swimming Team swam to four victories against three defeats. Opening the season against Central, the boys were rewarded with a 56-28 victory. In Five-A meets the Quaker natators splashed to victories over Ann Arbor, 52-32, and over Central again, 48-33. They were handed defeats by the powerful teams of Battle Creek and Jackson, 53-31 and 58-26 respectively. In other meets the team defeated Kalamazoo, 63-21, but lost to Fordson High, 54-30.

At the Five-A League the Easterners placed fourth. The squad gained a third place in the regionals. With Al Helman taking a first in the backstroke, the team swam to a sixth place in the State Meet. Above is the squad and below (right) is the scene of Eastern's home swimming meets.

Basketball

At the beginning of the 1938-39 basketball season Coach Walter Graff was faced by the problem of finding replacements for four of last year's regulars. The team started slowly but came along better towards the end of the season, concluding with a record of nine victories and eight defeats. The season was begun with a victory over the alumni. Traveling to Kalamazoo, the Quakers met their first defeat by the score of 18-13. In the 5-A League games the Easternites were defeated by Jackson, 27-25, and Lansing Central, 25-14, but gained a victory over Ann Arbor. The Quaker Five next met a strong Port Huron team, losing, 33-26. In the concluding games of the first semester, the team defeated Battle Creek, 25-14, but lost a close one to Bay City, 39-32. During the second half of the season the Quakers turned in wins over Ann Arbor, 28-16, Grosse Pointe, 30-24, Battle Creek and, in a very well played contest, Muskegon, 19-16. They suffered defeats at the hands of Central, 26-13, and in a thrilling contest with Jackson, 29-26.

The squad advanced to the finals of the regional by defeating Grand Rapids Davis Tech, 22-20, and Owosso, 19-18. Meeting the eventual State Champions, Flint Northern, in the finals, they fought hard but lost a 30-17 decision. With several of this year's regulars back next year's prospects are quite good.

Quaker Nine Successful

Combining many veterans from the previous year with some outstanding new talent, Coach Walter Graff turned out a highly successful baseball team for 1938. The team, led by Captain Wayne Green, was defeated only once. Opening the season with East Lansing, the Quakers turned in an easy victory, 9-3. Starting the Five-A league season at Battle Creek, the Quaker nine came back strong to defeat Jackson, 6-3, and Ann Arbor, 13-3, in well played games. In the annual game with Lansing Central, Eastern was victorious, 7-1. Other victories were hung up during the season over Howell, 9-0, East Lansing again, 18-0, Grand Ledge, 19-2, and Kalamazoo, 5-1.

Record Makers

The first meet of this season began a grand pace when the team gained a victory of 47-24 over Kalamazoo Central.

The fellows had a let down at Ann Arbor, losing 492/3-361/3 but soon regained their stride, defeating Okemos and Battle Creek by the lop-sided scores of 90-14 and  $72\frac{1}{2}-31\frac{1}{2}$ .

The closest meet of the year was held with Central, but after a fierce and determined struggle our tracksters managed to top them by a score of 53-51.

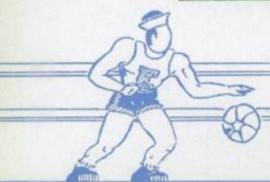

After winning a close meet with Jackson, 531/2-

50½, the fellows drilled seriously for the 5-A League track meet at Ann Arbor.

The team made a splendid showing at Ann Arbor, where three records were made by Eastern's color-bearers; Dale Kaulitz set a new low for the 200 yard low hurdles; Ted Wonch sailed into the air to establish a new height for pole vaulters; and Dick Ruckle made a record broad jump of 20'4". To add to the honors, Don Merritt placed first in the 880 yard run. Eastern was nosed out for first place in team honors, garnering 481/4 points to Jackson's 491/2.

A TRIBUTE

"Be American" was the philosophy of our late governor. His last public address Mr. Fitzgerald challenged youth to hold high the torch of Americanism that succeeding generations may have the benefits that we enjoy under our government. By educating ourselves in self-government, through the use of the opportunities offered by our student council, we, of Eastern High School, are attempting to carry out Governor Fitzgerald's entreaties for better citizenship.

APPRECIATION

Educational technique and facilities may change, but the fact that a school yearbook cannot be published without expert guidance and assistance remains an eternal verity. Realizing this, the members of the Lantern staff wish to express their sincere appreciation to all those who in any way aided in the compilation of this book.

We are especially grateful to Mr. Bruce Stone of the Stone Printing Company for his advice on the organization and printing of the book; to Mr. Andrew Werback of the Lansing Colorplate Company for his interest in the engravings; to Mr. Leonard A. Versluis of the Versluis Studios for the many courtesies extended in the making of pictures; and to Mr. Justin Miller of Kover Kraft for his advice and suggestions regarding covers.
